

Them, by J

I would die for them
Lay down my life for them,
Try and change the world for them
I would fight for them.

Every day my heart aches for them
I cry for them,
Feel loss for them,
My mind's in overdrive for them.

I miss you every day
In every way,
Struggle to sleep, breath and cope because my babies, you are them, you are – my hope.
